Carmel Work Center Notes

By Carol Tindell

Do you mind if we brag a bit? We can't help it...our seams are bursting with pride over the Craft Displays at the Fair and and the fact that we know so many of these superb craftsmen... and...that you can find their work at either of the Carmel Work Center Shops.

At the Del Monte Shop you can see the redwood Chess Set carved by Francheska Sandow... the Sweepstake Winner. We overheard it described as "rhythm in modern design"...a particularly fitting tribute. Glen Minshall reaped a harvest of awards...for those who know his work need we say more? Those who haven't seen his work...should!

Another master craftsman, Margaret Lang, was awarded a second prize for one of her superb bowls. Special awards went to David Tolerton and Margaret Bruton for 'specially beautiful Their work is displayed tables. at the Del Monte Shop where you can also see the exquisite petit-point of Margaretta Dittmar, another Sweepstake Winner.

A few more prize-winning Erna Brown for their pottery... Arnold and naturally Emile Norman for his creations in plastics.

Do you blame us for bragging?.

Tomorrow, Saturday, some Carmel will hold a Dollar Day to raise money for the completion of the Carmel Youth Center.

> Under the direction of Oscar Balzer, president, the Carmel Businessmen's Association has arranged with Jack and Bonnie Giles, co-directors of the Youth Center, to set up tables in front of stores featuring the items for sale. The tables will be manned by youths from Carmel High School, all of whom use the facilities of the Youth Center.

Real bargains will be offered and everyone is urged to take this painless way of helping the Youth Center.

Pine Inn Fashion Show Well Received

The Gail Coupe fashion show Wednesday, second in a series of fashion shows being given each week during luncheon hours at the Pine Inn, was attended by a large number of interested spectators. Mr. Coupe was commentator, and acknowledgements were made to the Village Shoe Tree, The Hour Glass and to Johni of Jamil's Beauty Shop.

The clothes shown were most attractive and reasonably priced. Everything from sportswear for golf to daytime dress, city clothes, cocktail dresses and lavish evening gowns were modeled. The last dress shown was a lovely pale grey-blue slipper satin, quite decollete, with a little mandarin jacket.

Don't forget Dollar Day tomorrow.

Who Runs America?

the Congress?

* * *

the President?

OR YOU AND THE MAN NEXT DOOR?

RUNNING AMERICA is the joint job of 150,000,000 people. It's the biggest job in the world today —keeping it running for liberty and for freedom. And the whole world's watching to see whether Americans can do it!

IN MUCH OF THE WORLD today, the people have resigned from running their own countries. Others have been quick to step in—first with promises of "security"—and then with whips and guns—to run things their way. The evidence is on every front page in the world, every day.

FREEDOM COMES UNDER ATTACK. The reality of war has made every American think hard about the things he's willing to work and fight for—and freedom leads the list.

But that freedom has been attacked here recently—just as it has been attacked in other parts of the world. One of the most serious threats to individual freedom has been the threat of Government-dominated Compulsory Health Insurance, falsely presented as a new guarantee of health "security" for everybody.

THE PEOPLE WEIGH THE FACTS. In the American manner, the people studied the case for Socialized Medicine—and the case against it.

They found that Government domination of the people's medical affairs under Compulsory Health Insurance means lower standards of medical care, higher payroll taxes, loss of incentive, damage to research, penalties for the provident, rewards for the improvident.

They found that no country on earth can surpass America's leadership in medical care and progress. They found that able doctors, teachers, nurses and scientists—working in laboratories where Science, not Politics, is master—are blazing dramatic new trails to health for Americans—and for the world.

THE "GRASS ROOTS" SIGNALS CONGRESS. In every community in the Nation, people stood up to be counted on this important issue. Thousands of local women's clubs, civic groups, farm, business, religious, taxpayer, medical, educational and patriotic organizations spoke out—giving the great United States Congress its unmistakable Grass Roots signal from home!

And ever watchful, ever sensitive to an alert people, The Congress saw that signal, and heard the people speak out, loud and plain. That's democracy in action. That's the American way!

Today among the 10,000 great organizations on militant public record against "Compulsory Health Insurance" are:

General Federation of Women's Clubs
American Farm Bureau
Federation
National Grange
Veterans of Foreign Wars
National Conference of Catholic Charities
American Protestant
Hospital Association

American Legion
National Association of Small Business Men
United States Chamber of

• Doctors of this Nation are grateful that the people refused to be wooed by the fantastic promises of this un-American excursion into State Socialism. • Doctors of America are dedicated to serve their fellow citizens at home and their comrades in uniform, wherever service to this Nation may take them. • And the thing they stand ready to fight for—to sacrifice for—to die for—is not the alien way of life of Socialism, but the prideful security of a free and self-reliant people!

THE VOLUNTARY WAY IS THE AMERICAN WAY!

• Throughout the Nation, free men and women, working and planning together, are finding the American answer to every question of medical service, care and cost. Hundreds of Voluntary Health Insurance Plans are in healthy competition—sponsored by doctors, insurance companies, hospitals, fraternal organizations—by industry, agriculture and labor. • Today in America—70 million people are protected by Voluntary Health Insurance! • Throughout the Nation, families are insuring themselves against the major costs of illness—at reasonable, budget-basis prices. Voluntary Health Insurance takes the economic shock out of illness. Protect your family now. • For information, ask your doctor—or your insurance man.

An American's greatest heritage is the right to learn the facts—and to speak his mind. Maintained with honor and used with sincerity—that right will guarantee forever that

New Officers Elected for Music Teachers' Association

Mrs. Irene E. Graham was elected president of the Mon-terey County branch of the Music Teachers' Association of California at a meeting of charter memberd held in Carmel September 28.

Other officers elected for the coming year were Mrs. Ralph Weston, vice-president, Jack Loren Lindesmith, recording secretary, and Kathryn Lansdowne, financial secretary.

The following appointments were also made: Mrs. M. C. Holman, program chairman, Dorothy Goudge and Mrs. F. J. Lebeck, program committee members; E. C. Hopkins, membership chairman; Adele Marie Dank-worth and Alice Louise de Riemer, membership committee members, and Victor Drilea, publicity director.

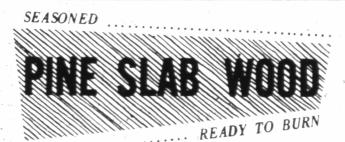

The purpose of the organization is the promotion of a broader and more cultural musical education for both teachers and students. Only qualified teachers are accepted as active members. However, amateurs or persons interested in the art of music may become associate members, and persons who can offer financial and other support of the association may become sustaining members.

The meeting included a discussion of tentative plans for future teacher and student Øbituary

BUT AMERICA IS NOT THE LAND OF THE FREE HANDOUT

Our Nation was founded on the principle that Freedom must be paid for and is well worth paying for.

The American people have made great sacrifices in payment for liberty.

But they have refused to sacrifice liberty for promised "security"...to trade freedom for the spurious "safety" of State Socialism.

This firm is proud to be part of a community and a country where each American is free to worship as he chooses-and grants that same privilege to his neighbor...where a business is free to create a better product, and to compete in the open market for patronage.

Unfettered by political controls, American medicine has made this the healthiest, strongest Nation in the world. Socialized medicine would endanger our physical health, our economic welfare and our political freedom.

With American medicine, we say...

Let's keep our right to manage our own lives... to earn our liberty...to keep America the

Foundation Planting Topic of PTA

The Carmel Parent Teachers Association program this year promises to be of interest to all concerned with the development of the pre school children through their school years. The regular monthly meeting of the Carmel PTA will be held Tuesday, October 10, in the Woods School Kindergarten at 2:30 p.m.

The first speaker will be Rosa Doner, director of the Carmel Nursery School. Her subject will be "Foundation Planting.

Miss Florence Morrow will give a resume of the Dental Survey held last year. It was one of the most outstanding surveys made in the state.

Household Hint

If windows have brown stains on them from rusty screens, rub spots with cut lemon. If the stain is stubborn make a paste of cream of tartar and peroxide. Apply this and let it stand for half an hour, then flush off with water.

The Well-Baby Clinic will also be discussed.

Recreation director, George Mosolf, promises an interesting report on the summer recreation program.

The program will close with a report by Mrs. Fred Farr from the legislative committee.

Dr. Freidy Heisler will begin her series of lectures on "Adolescence" Thursday, October 12, 7:30 p.m., in the Sun-set Cafeteria. Plan to attend all six lectures.

Department Heads Named For Fall Rummage Sale

Miss Dufour introduced me to the craft of Dresden China, which has been sweeping the country. She says it's easy and very relaxing. Also there is a challenge to it, and it does give one a chance to mix colors and plan a color scheme. There are a great variety of pieces that can be painted. In addition to the usual figurines there are all sorts of practical pieces. For instance you can make your own lamp base or book ends. You can color your own collection of Toby mugs, or a shadow box in which to put your figurines. There are also religious plaques to decorate, and heads for lapel pins. Any of these would be wonderful for Christmas presents.

Once you start Dresden China you will find it a most pleasing and satisfying occupation-- and what's more, you will have results in the way of ornaments for your home or gifts you can give away for Christ-mas. Hurry to CARMEL CRAFTS AND HOBBIES and make the break into a happy time.

Shop and deal in a trade style called Tropitan.

Tropic Shops are located in major cities throughout the United States-- and one of them is on New York's Fifth Avenue.

Mrs. Barber fell in love with Carmel six years ago when she was visiting on the Monterey Peninsula. Her dream of becoming a permanent resident has come true. It is her dynamic personality and sales ability that have made it possible for her to bring this wonderful line of furniture to Carmel.

Tropitan is a modern rattan which lends a warm, colorful, casual note to your home. It is made of solid Philippine rattan and is not hollow like bamboo, which belongs to the weed family. Tropitan is a member of the tree family. The long, round wood is steam bent before it is brought to Los Angeles for assemblage. Tropitan frames are covered in more than 100 different zippered, reversible fabrics. A nice feature is that these covers may be bought boxed in the numerous cities where Tropic Shops flourish. For 15 years Tropitan has contributed to the California way of life.

Mrs. Barber, as a franchised dealer for Tropitan, will also carry distinctive accessories: Tropic Gem ceramics and table settings, and a complete line of Calhawaii bamboo draperies, unique lamps

Community Chest Workers to Meet

A meeting of all Community Chest workers who are assisting Carmel residential chairman, Mrs. Edmund Sullivan, will be held next Thursday, October 12, at 11 A.M., at Sunset School. All are urged to attend.

Group Learns More About Camping Program For School Children

An enthusiastic group of parents, teachers and camp committee members gathered Tuesday evening at Sunset School to learn more about a local camping program similar to those already in effect elsewhere in the state, mainly in San Diego County.

James Blee introduced Mrs. F. L. Wallace, arrangements chairman, whose enthusiasm and hard work has helped to bring about this program -- which will give sixth grade school children a chance to spend a school week at Big Sur State Park next May.

A movie of San Diego children at Camp Cuyamaca was shown and the value of sa program was fully discuss Blee, who emphasized how the program can bring about a more democratic way of living.

The planning of the program is shared by the children, said Blee. Each child takes an active interest in his personal and camp equipment and is taught self-reliance. Formal teacher-pupil relationships disappear through learning and being together, and both teachers and students return to the classroom with a new respect for one another. New skills show up, said Blee, and the child who perhaps was not a leader in the classroom may become one in camp life.

With the help of trained naturalists, Blee continued, children are taught to observe and to learn the hidden secrets of the forest. Nature study, geology, botany and conserva-tion are stressed, as are, more importantly still, health and safety rules. History, geography, art and music take on a new importance, and citizenship and comradeship are evolved from the children's having worked together in a group to-ward a definite goal.

In this country, 22,000 children have taken part in the school camping program in the past five years.

Musical Arts Club Concert Sunday Night

The annual members' concert of the Musical Arts Club will be presented at 8:15 Sunday evening in Sunset Auditorium, this year in conjunction with the Carmel Evening School. No tickets of admission are required.

Five talented members of the club will be featured in a program consisting of vocal solos, two-piano works and original poetry. Contralto Ruth H. Cooke, who has studied voice with Noel Sullivan and May Williams, has been an active member of the Bach Festival chorus and the Carmel Mission choir.

Thomas L. Griffen, director of the Masonic choir, the All Saints' Church choir and the Carmel Youth Center glee club, received the major part of his training at Westminster Choir College in Princetown, New Jersey, and was one of the soloists with the Westminster choir, which toured this country and Europe.

Angle Machado and Robert M. Forbes will present several two-piano compositions. Miss Machado, first introduced to Musical Arts Club audiences in 1940 as piano soloist, is known for her work at Monterey and Carmel High Schools and Sunset Schools as instructor of music history, musicianship and music appreciation. She also has directed choruses, a cappella choirs and piano ensembles in this area. Robert Forbes, organist at the Mayflower Congregational Church and accomist for the Masonic choir, is studying piano with Gene LeDuc of the Robert Schmidt School in San Francisco.

Ross Worsley will present a contrasting mood with the reading of original poems. Mr. Worsley's poems have been published in six volumes, and have received the enthusiastic comments of such well-known personages as Lotte Lehman, Tennessee Williams and Paul Jordan Smith. Mr. Worsley is also a soloist in the musical field, having played in the Bach Festival and at New York's famed Little Church Around the Comer.

Stamp Club Meeting

The Monterey Peninsula Stamp Club met Monday evening at Sunset School, at which time plans for the annual club dinner and the election of officers for next year were discussed.

The monthly stamp auction was held under the direction of E. D. Yount. Mr. Yount and a visitor, Belia Koff, were awarded door prizes.

The next meeting of the club will be held October 16. All interested persons are cordially invited to attend.

Participation in the Crusade for Freedom was one of the projects discussed at the season's first meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club Monday.

Projects Discussed

Members also decided to grant the use of the clubhouse to the American Red Cross on certain days. Other projects include the opening of a lending library after October 16, the raising of money for the Carmel Youth Center, and a series of bridge lessons and tournaments, the first of which is tonight, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. George Gooden.

Highlighting the meeting was a premiere showing by Micol Smith of color films he took during a 40-day trek to the interior of Venezuela. The expedition he accompanied was the third one ever to visit the region.

Following the meeting tea was served by Mrs. F. E. Vaughan, president, and Mrs. Barbara Murphy, program chairman.

The club's garden section will meet October 23 to hear Mrs. Elmer Bingaman speak on bulb planting.

New Officers Installed at Serra Club Meeting

A regular meeting of the Serra Club was held Monday at the Casa Munras for the purpose of installing new officers. Those to serve for 1951 are Joe Fratessa, president; Ray Rudolph, first vice-president; John Redhead, second vice-president; Louis Allaire, treasurer, and Tad Burke, secretary. The three trustees are Joe McCloskey, Dr. William Coughlin and Pat Ryan. The outgoing president is Roger Ernst. #### Governor Warren Activates

New Civil Defense Legislation
Governor Warren has signed legislation putting California in complete conformity with the federal civil defense program.

The program was immediately activated with the Governor's appointment of Major General Walter M. Robertson, 62-year-old retired Army officer, as state director of civil defense.

In signing three bills passed by the recent special session of the Legislature, the Governor said:

Governor said:

"This legislation covers all of the urgent matters of civil defense for which I called the Legislature into special session. It enables the Governor and the Disaster Council to cope with the civil defense problem in all of its ramifications tions.

"Our laws are now entirely in conformity with the civil defense program proposed by the President and submitted recently to Congress. The federal program, in turn, was entirely in keeping with our plan for civil defense in California. This is not merely a circumstance; it is a fact because we kent in touch with the federal kept in touch with the federal civil defense authorities for months, before the federal program was composed and while

A suggestion was made by Carmel Martin, chairman of the County Planning Commission, to have state authorities help iron out any legal difficulties that might stand in the way of the City of Carmel's leasing the property from the State, when acquired by the latter. The park would be run jointly by Carmel and the County of Monterey. Among the problems to be discussed are the furnishing of police protection and rubbish disposal service for the area.

Thomas Perry, Carmel city attorney, presented the legal aspects of the case.

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S

WHO IS IT?

THE SPECTATOR'S "Who is it?" this week is a gentleman whose face is familiar to a lot of people around the Monterey Peninsula-especially to football fans and Lions Club members.

He's on the major list of the Pacific Coast conference of football officials (having had plenty of experience officiating in the game, especially for local schools), he's president of the Carmel Lions Club... and his name is Ted Febring.

and his name is Ted Fehring.

Ted was born April 8, 1914, in Columbus, Indiana, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fehring. His father, who was also born in Indiana and who has stayed right there, was at the time a manufacturer of buggies, but since then he has moved from Columbus to Terre Haute and has switched to the wholesale hardware business.

After grammar school and high school in his home town, Ted attended Purdue University in Lafayette, Indiana, graduating in 1936 with a B.A. degree in physical education. He stayed on for a while as assistant football coach and in 1939 received his master's degree in P.E. From Purdue, he went to Wiley High School in Terre Haute, where he was football coach for eight years. In 1945 Leo Harris, then super-Intendent of schools in Carmel, hired him as coach (football, basketball and what have you) for Carmel high-- and Ted has been a Californian ever since.

The following year he went to work for the Coast Counties Land Title Company in Monterey as escrow officer, and that's what he is today.

In 1938 Ted was married to Miss Marie Grote, of Stanwood, Washington, whom he had met on a vacation in Southern California two years before. They now have four children--all girls: Janet, 9; Jean, 8; Joy, 6, and Julie, 8 months. The choice of names for the girls makes the problem of what to do with outgrown monogrammed handkerchiefs a simple one.

In addition to his Lions Club and football activities, Ted is vicepresident of the Church of the wayfarer executive board (for the second year) and is a past president of the Men of the Wayfarer.

Forest Theater Guild Produces "Winterset"

Against a natural back-drop of dark pines and starred sky, Maxwell Anderson's "Winterset," produced by the Forest Theater Guild, had its opening night last Friday at Carmel's outdoor theater.

A well-rehearsed cast played to an unfortunately small audience, many people kept at home no doubt by the chilliness of the evening, which could not be altogether dispelled by the burning fires at either end of the bleacher seats nor the steamerrugs and pillows brought by many of the spectators.

steamerrugs and pillows brought by many of the spectators.

"Winterset" is a grim play from start to near-melodramatic finish, with no relief of humorous touch except for one brief street-dancing scene--and that very caustic humor--yet with the idealism of youth, love and devotion triumphing in spite of murder, psychopathy, incurable illness, degrading poverty and death--much death.

A consistently fine piece of acting was done by John Craig who played Mio, the boy who gave his youth to the end of avenging the seemingly unfair trial and subsequent execution of his father when Mio was a small child. Craig's diction and interpretation throughout were excellent.

Playing opposite him was Jane Prosser as Mariamne, the Jewish girl who loved Mio and who was the only character in the play (with the possible exception of Carr, Mio's one friend--well-interpreted by Val Clement) who had not been submerged by life in bitterness and cynicism. Mariamne rep-resented for the audience, as well as for Mio, rare but real goodness, loyalty and youthful idealism, although even she failed him at the most crucial moment of his life by turning from his need to the saving of her brother.

The most difficult characterization was that of Judge Gaunt by Alan Van Nuys, who gave a fine portrayal of a man, high in the legal profession, whose mind has broken under the strain of being tom between his devotion to the cause of justice and the suspicion that he has sent Mio's father to the electric chair with inadequate evidence for the conviction. His mental distress, feeble self-justifications and confusion were real to the audience, though the calibre of the acting was not sustained throughout. The demands of the part were great, and it is predicted that Van Nuys will give an even better performance this second weekend presentation of "Winterset."

Trock and his Shadow (Erik, Fog and Sam Wainwright, Jr.) both convicts on parole and with reason under surveillance and suspicion, were convincing villains. Trock was, perhaps, too villainous a villain--over-reeking with malice and hatred and too steeped in bitterness-to seem convincing in the sob scene toward the end of the play. But, on the whole, Fog succeeded well in portraying Anderson's conception of him.

Mariamne's brother, Garth, was interpreted by John Mitchell as the weakling he was supposed to be. If he fingered his violin with an unpleasant constancy during his every appearance on the stage, this was doubtless true to the weakness of character he necessarily had to portray.

Like father, like son--or rather, like son, like father. Esdras, played by Ronald Faye, had also obviously 'missed the boat" in life. Esdras gave more evidence of cerebral activity than his son Garth, but his thought life did not have the force to counteract the bitterness which misfortune, frustrations and disillusion--both in his son and in himself--brought.

son and in himself--brought.

A stark tragedy such as "Winterset" is not easy to perform. Much credit is due the entire cast, Cole Weston, the director, and the production staff.

staff.

"Winterset will be performed again tonight and tomorrow night. Carmel is fortunate to be offered the high grade of entertainment given by the Forest Theater Guild. D.E.M.

MRS. RONALD STONEY, chairman of the committee in charge of the committee in charge of Arnold Lunn's forthcoming appearance at Sunset Auditorium under the sponsorship of the Catholic Daughters of the Peninsula. First public exhibition of the unique "Golden Thumb Leprechauns," creations of creations of Eualia Stuart Stauffer of Pacific Grove, is being held for a limit-ed time at The Poor Scholar Book Shop, Polk and Hartnell,

The 'little people,' who started out as a party table setting, have grown into what critics say is a genuine art form. and one which Mrs. Stauffer finds has given her more creative satisfaction than the painting and sculptured pieces she achieved in her years of study.

The leprechauns are posed singly and in groups. Some are dancers, with fiddlers and a caller. There is a handsome Hallowe'en witch with owl and pumpkin, and most amusing of all, any old-time dentist with his struggling patient.

The leorechauns stand on carved wooden bases, the work of Miss Harriet Coombs of Pacific Grove, who is credited by Mrs. Stauffer as being the one who inspired the work.

Edward S. Shattuck, candidate for Attorney General, brought his fighting campaign to Monterey County Sunday and carried on a 'round-the-clock schedule of talks before neigh-borhood groups in Salinas, Carmel and Monterey. He toured the county Monday also.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck were guests at the Monterey County Fair and Horse Show, with Shattuck presenting the Samuel F. B. Morse trophy at the horse show.

The Shattucks were guests Monday evening at a dinner given at Pilots on Fisherman's Wharf in Monterey. A meeting followed at the San Carlos Hotel. Mrs. John Clancy, campaign manager for the Peninsula, was in charge of arrangements. During his stay, Shattuck conferred in each community with his local Democratic and Republican leaders, under the county chairmanship of Homer

T. Hayward, prominent Salinas civic leader.

In his brief speeches through-out the county, Shattuck em-phasized the need for "restoration of public confidence in the office of the Attorney General." He pointed out that if he is elected to that office he will establish a program of "cooperating and working with sheriffs, chiefs of police and district attorneys in locallevel law enforcement prob-lems." He said that the state's chief law enforcement officer must offer all the help of his staff and resources but must refrain from interfering with local agencies unless specifically called.

"In the many complex legal decisions and interpretations which the Attorney General must make," Shattuck continued, "there is no room for the included. inclusion of personal political philosophy, although my opponent has stated that in some casee his philosophy would enter into his work. This belief certainly disqualifies him from holding the office of Attorney General, whose work should be based on the letter of the law and any deviation therefrom would be a violation of the state constitution." He stressed the necessity of wiping out organized and syndicated crime in California and pledged himself to that task if elected.

After a week of campaigning in Northern California, Shattuck returned to Los An-
